

The concept

This Winter Seminar is an annual moment to gather and share scientific practices and knowledge among early-stage researchers. As we are a group of researchers with an interdisciplinary perspective, we believe it is important for all members to meet and trust each other in order to better build research projects together. This seminar helps us to build a shared vision of our impact as researchers on sustainability in a challenging world.

Provisional programme

Day 1 - 23/01/2024 The day will focus on scientific exchange to learn about other areas of research and how to participate in constructive review processes. Room: G110 (UTT, building G, level 1)
